- How did your experience growing up affect your attitude to money, spending and saving?

Going Deeper

The Bible and Jesus say a lot about our attitude to and use of money. It never says having money is bad or that money is evil. But it does say that our attitude and actions in relation to money is a litmus test for the state of our heart and where our commitments are. Jesus would say money is a tool to be used wisely but never something that should rule our life.

Read Proverbs 21:20 & 21:5 & 13:11.

1. Explain one of these verses in your own words for our modern context.
2. What do you think is a good amount to save or build up as a financial reserve?

Read Proverbs 11:24-25, Luke 6:38, Acts 20:21.

1. What spiritual dynamics are outlined here?
2. What faith / heart attitudes are required to be able to be generous with our money?
